Metrofuser Moving Into Lexmark®

Metrofuser expanding into Lexmark® parts distribution and remanufacturing

July 14, 2006 - Roselle, New Jersey HP LaserJet printer parts provider Metrofuser has announced it will begin offering parts and repair solutions for Lexmark brand laser printers.

Metrofuser has been developing alternatives to Lexmark® products over the past 180 days and will become more aggressive in its expansion of its capabilities and offerings. The company's Research and Development Department in Roselle, New Jersey will lead the company and industry into the newest alternatives to the number two player in Laser Printing.

“Our products offer equivalent performance, considerable savings and longer warranties.” said Will De Muth Vice President of Logistics “This offer complements Metrofuser's broad line of parts for mono chrome and color printer for Hewlett Packard®.”
